Susan Peckitt

A woman whistles through the halls She carries with her a wide brim hat Beowulfs sword for a bathroom pass is against the wall

> The contra dancing fills the room She skips lightly and against the grain A woman whistles through the halls

The independence flows around the corner She refuses to bend to authority Beowulfs sword for a bathroom pass is against the wall

> Ask her anything about a comma She can tell you the rule A woman whistles through the halls

Catcher is a weekend book and poetry and short stories Are the way forward Beowulfs sword for a bathroom pass is against the wall

> The B-wing will never be the same There will just be a lingering sound, fading A woman whistles through the halls

> > Poem by Anthony Marar

LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

Can't believe we've already been here for four years. It seems like just yesterday was the start of our freshmen year. Thank you to all of the staff, faculty, and students for making the past four the most memorable. We, along with the rest of yearbook, have spent the past few months putting together the best of this year and hopefully some memories from prior years. HUGEEE shout-out to Ms. Roy for being an amazing advisor this past year. We hope you all enjoy!

-Rachel Wagner and Lauren Klotz

LETTER TO THE 2019 CLASS ADVISORS

The Class of 2019 would like to thank our amazing advisors Travs and Izzo....wait, Mrs. Scanlon and Mrs. Morin! We have all grown so much through the last four years and we are such thankful to have had two incredibly dedicated and selfless advisors to lead us along the way. We truly lucked out with you two and we will all miss you so much!

Lots of love, GHS Class of 2019

A LETTER FROM YOUR CLASS ADVISORS

Our Class of 2019 Nuggets,

You made it! The long awaited graduation is finally here. We have absolutely loved being your advisors for the past four years. From having you as students in class, to cheering alongside you during Homecoming Week, to watching as your senioritis kicked in full force this spring, we have loved every minute of it. Thank you for being the best group of students we could have asked for.

You will forever be known to us as "our class". We will miss each and every one of you in the halls next year, but we can't wait to hear of all you accomplish in the future. Make sure to keep in touch and come back to visit!

Love, your favorite (and only) advisors
